College Green Barracks

I received your letter just now No 4 & was glad to hear from you. I am d—d glad to hear that that road scrape [was] is settled

& to hear you got a little the best of them Is it wicked to swear about that road

Has S. Reading rescinded the vote to pay the old Soldiers the 100.00, if not † can I get it on an order

I thought Geo Aborn was going to go back into the Depot when he got home.

About that watch I hope,

I hope – well I hope you wont lose it

Ive not heard from the

Regt since I wrote you before. If you had concluded to sell the watch I was going to have you send it to

Orrin Green in the Hospital

Sergeant Madden had a couple of Bat Balls come in a Box

& the postage was 18 cts I

I shall have something coming from my clothing account all I got of clothing last year

Was 16 dollars leaving 26 for me

There is a talk that the Army is going to fight again soon & that we

& the last 2 arrivals from

Richmond are going to stop at Camp parole all

Camp Parole is about a mile from here. It is fitted up first rate Kingman done well. He is one of Uncle Sam's invincibles He is not so much to blame as the one that enlisted him Here is another pen this is not good gold Composition I think the other is a good one

I shall soon be a 9 mo's man. & then time will pass slow I'm thinking but it cannot last long
I had to get me a pair of Suspenders to keep up my pants (I got the money of O. Green) & they are not good for any thing for me as they are not strong enough but will be good for Father

They are a little dirty, it came from my coloured shirt but it will was off I will send them home one at a time in papers When did they change the postage on papers
I did not know any thing about it. I got Flag & [Here?] yesterday with acc't of McKay death in it. He was not shot for any particular good he ever done But I must stop Furloughs are played out here But I must stop Yours Truly
